

Illinois EPA to Offer Expanded Hours at Centralized Vehicle Emissions Testing Sites

Motorists to Have More Time for Testing, Especially on Saturday

Hours have been extended July 6 through August 31 at centralized vehicle emissions testing locations on Saturdays, Mondays, and Tuesdays to accommodate motorists that did not have their vehicles tested during the COVID-19 pandemic. Testing hours for Wednesday through Friday will remain the same. Expanded hours at these facilities will be as follows:

- Saturdays – 7:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. (Normally 7:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.)
- Mondays and Tuesdays – 7:30 a.m. – 6:30 p.m. (Normally 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.)
- Wednesdays - Fridays – Hours remain the same from 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

WHEN SHOULD YOU TEST?

Help reduce traffic and wait times.
